A staggering 41,975 people sent in their votes and the title “ Forge Your Future.” Got the maximum number of vote that is how this book got its title.

Forge You Future Provides insight into the issue which concern and engage the minds of young Indians. As Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam write in the Introduction to his book “The wide spectrum of issues reflected in the book are like the colours of the rainbow, each one different from the others, but all emanating from one light,/ and that one light is illumination of the soul, the honesty. Just like his provides books, it is also able to provide a extreme ways of new thinking. But the book is somewhat very special in many aspects. The most important among all of them is that, its tile has been selected on the basis of readers choice.

Dr. Kalam likes to answer the questions asked by youngsters regularly. Among them he has selected 32 questions for this book. That is why, the book directly related to the youngster. While going through the book, we can realize that he has given answer with patience and in an interesting ways. His mode of answering is more than as a motivator but like a guardian. The 32 separate answers are like 32 chapters . It presents his various visions in every new chapter. On the basis of them when he says something, we can get many valuable quotes and meaningful. For example, while answering a question regarding importance of dream in life, he says that they are not the real dreams which you see during sleep, but those are real due to which you cannot sleep. In the same way, while answering another question he says that the spiritual strength is our real power. If we search seriously within ourselves, then we can get internal strength and inspiration to solve all the difficulties and achieve our target.

We can say that the book may be helpful to every youngster, who wants not only to succeed in his/her career or life, but also wants to be a sensitive social person and a responsible citizen of the nation
